

Workshop : Presentation Skills for Beginners

Date: Thursday 14 March, 9am - 4pm

Cost: $200 (incl GST)

Venue: Library Meeting Room, Ground Floor, RMH

Designed for participants with no or little experience presenting to live audiences, this session will instruct participants on the processes of planning, designing, creating and delivering effective presentations. This workshop also enables participants to deliver various types of presentations so that they build their confidence in presenting. Participants will receive feedback from their peers and create action plans for continued development.

In this session participants will learn to:

- Design presentations that inform, instruct, persuade and inspire
- Adapt presentations to accommodate the needs of different audiences
- Become familiar with presentation methods to keep audiences engaged
- Learn how to manipulate page layouts
